

Title IX Procedures

Anyone who believes they have been subjected to dating violence, domestic violence, stalking or sexual discrimination and harassment is encouraged to report these incidents. Upon receiving a report, Florida National University will respond promptly, equitably, and thoroughly. In addition, the University will take steps to accommodate the student academically with another schedule if needed.

Consistent with its commitment to addressing Title IX incidents, the University has grievance procedures that specify actions taken regarding Title IX complaints. All student complaints will be received by FNU's Title IX coordinator in the office of Student Services. Any University official (e.g., faculty member, staff member, dean, etc.) informed of an allegation is required to file a report with the Title IX coordinator. All results from the investigation will remain confidential and private.

Investigation

Reports of alleged Title IX incidents will be investigated in a thorough, impartial, and prompt fashion. Directly following the conclusion of the investigation, a determination of whether or not to proceed to the next step will be made by the Title IX Coordinator. This determination will be based on whether reasonable cause exists to believe that a policy violation may have occurred. If sufficient information exists to proceed to the next step, the Title IX coordinator will include administration to take further action. In case of a faculty or staff member the department of Human Resources will take the action needed.

Title IX Coordinator Investigation Procedure

1. The Title IX Coordinator will oversee the collecting of facts related to any reported Title IX incident and assessing whether a further review or investigation is necessary.
2. Identify University policies and Student Conduct Code relevant to complaint.
3. Conduct an impartial investigation into complaints including identifying and interviewing parties involved with the grievance. Title IX Coordinator will notify and interview complainants, respondents, and witnesses.
4. The Title IX Coordinator will collaborate with other staff or faculty members to manage accommodations, as needed.

Resolution

1. Florida National University seeks to resolve all Title IX reports within sixty (60) days, unless it is referred to Local Law Enforcement. .
2. Depending on the grievance, the situation can be handled with disciplinary action or referred to Local Law Enforcement.
3. There will be a follow-up meeting with the complainant to discuss the results of the investigation and the actions that will be taken.
