Position Title: Crime Scene Investigations Faculty
Reports To: Department & Division Head
Classification: Exempt
WC Code: 8869
Position Type: Fourth Level Administrator

Major Responsibilities: It is the major responsibility of a faculty member at Florida National University to provide quality instruction and career advisement to all students. The faculty also is responsible for maintaining grades and for the development of course objectives, outline, syllabi, and course competencies.

Specific Duties and Responsibilities:

1. Reads, understands and complies with the University’s mission, the catalog, the University’s policies and procedures, the Faculty Handbook, and the institutional effectiveness process.
2. Responds to communications (e-mail/voice-mail) on a daily basis.
3. Provides appropriate level of instruction.
4. Must be able to provide students with hands on activities related to course-topics.
5. Provides quality instruction for the students.
6. Ensures the assessment of students learning outcomes per course.
7. Submits, annually, to the Department Head or Division Head, the results of research done into a study of the local careers and industry regarding appropriateness of course/program content.
8. Reports to the Registrar’s office all grades and submits reports on a timely fashion.
9. Attends all faculty meetings, professional development functions and University committees to which they have been assigned.
10. Ensures that all electronic library resources are used for college work only.
11. Maintains the posted hours for the purpose of student advisement and tutoring.
12. Performs those duties designated by the Department Chairperson.
13. Works with the librarians in the establishment and weeding of the library program and course collection development.
14. Overseer compliance with licensing and accrediting organizations.
15. Continuously oversee actions for improvements at campus level sited in the Faculty’s Planning, Assessment, and Implementation Form.
16. Participates in the self studies and committees conducted by the University.
17. Support and participate in University Commencement Ceremonies.
18. Performs other duties as assigned.
In addition to the above primary duties, these are additional requirements for the

Criminal Justice CIS Instructor will:

- All FNU instructors are required to review and respond to emails within 24 hours and provide thorough feedback on student assignments within 48 hours; online instructors are required to check online courses for student questions, and reply within 24 hours.
- Instructors must possess average computer skills, which include Word, PowerPoint, and Excel; instructors must also feel comfortable with Blackboard, including Course Sites, or able to master Blackboard with minimal training and self-study tutorials.
- All applicants must possess at least a master's degree from a regionally accredited institution in CJ, plus at least one year of field experience in crime scene / forensics, or a master's degree from a regionally accredited institution in any discipline, plus at least four years of field experience in crime scene / forensics. These requirements are a must; they are non-negotiable.

This job description is intended to describe the general nature and level of work being performed by individuals assigned to this position. It is not intended to be construed as an exhaustive list of all tasks, duties, skills and/or responsibilities required for this position in each Campus at all times. Tasks, duties, skills and/or responsibilities may vary from individual to individual, campus to campus and over time, depending upon various factors. These are general guidelines for this job position.

To apply for this position, please click on the link below:

https://workforcenow.adp.com/jobs/apply/posting.html?client=fnuedu&jobId=13215